

A photograph from Genoa. Delegates to the economic conference outside the Palazzo Reale, where the delegates met. The group includes Mr. Lloyd George, Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, Sir Robert Horne, Signor Facta, the Italian Premier, and Signor Schanzer, the Italian Foreign Minister.

A new royalty in Africa—Crown Prince Tafari, who has just been made regent of Abyssinia. K. & H.

The Russian delegation at Genoa. Left to right: Litvinoff, Worosky, Joffe, Gen. Wachoweky, Gen. Nowicky. Rudzutak Slirkin is behind the seat.

One of the prettiest girls and prettiest costumes at the "Review of Revues" given at the Plaza last week by society girls. The young woman is Miss Margaret Hennessy as "The Old Fashioned Girl."

Photograms

A new war memorial to sailors and marines designed by Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney. It will stand at 167th street and Broadway, New York.

Three participants in the Junior Horse Show at Washington. Left to right, Miss Florence Lindsay, granddaughter of Mrs. Marshall Field; Miss Harriet, daughter of Gen. Mitchell of the Air Service, and Katrina, daughter of Senator Medill McCormick. National.

The terrific flood at Beardstown, Illinois. The two, H. C. Eads and Mrs. Eads, are watching their home, waiting for the waters to subside. Thousands of others are in the same predicament.